Legacy Lids showcase lodge histories

Lodges have submitted their legacy lids for sharing and distribution. Click here to read more about the project and learn how to submit a lid if you haven't already.

The image shows two examples of lodge legacy lids. The lid on the left is a light-colored fabric with a central illustration of a lodge building and the text 'WA-HI-NASA'. It also features several circular emblems. The lid on the right is white with a blue and red design, featuring a cartoon turtle, a red arrow, and the text 'NOAC 2015 100 YEARS'.

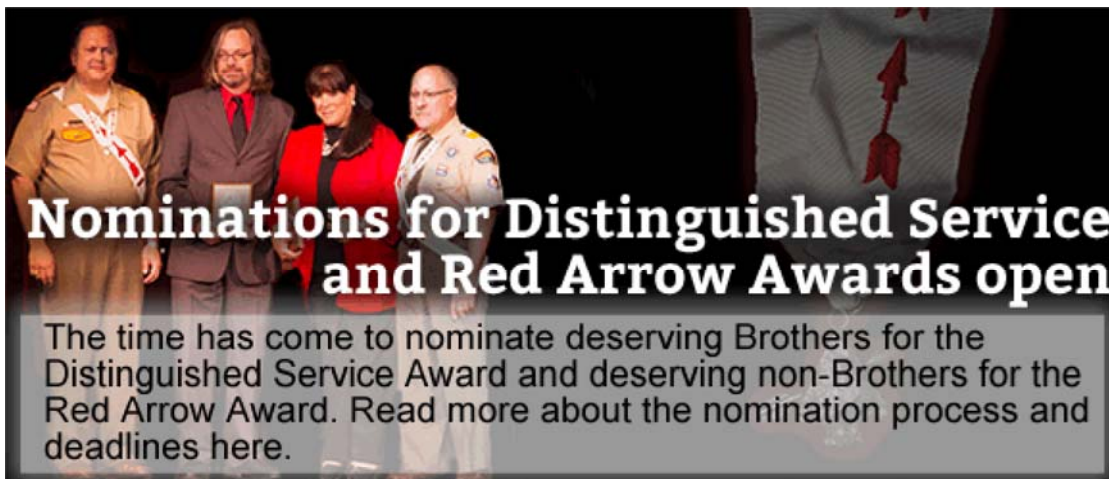

Traditions carried on in Wahunsenakah Lodge

Lodge mergers present interesting opportunities, but the challenge is preserving the best traditions of all lodges involved. Read about how Wahunsenakah Lodge attempts to do just that.
